SEPTEMBER 2010 @ YOUR LIBRARY

Back-to-School Book Giveaway

Discover a great source for bargain books—and take one home absolutely free! Students from kindergarten through college can get one regular-priced book free at our Friend-Shop used book store on Sat. and Sun., Sep. 18 and 19. The shop, on our lower level, is open those days (and every weekend) from 1:30 to 4:30 pm.

No purchase necessary; does not include individually priced “special books.”

The Dome Theater

On Sat., Sep. 25, step inside the inflatable Dome Theater and be surrounded by a state-of-the-art, high-definition digital presentation. It's an exciting way to learn about science! From 10 am to 5 pm, four different 30-minute shows, for ages 5 and up, will be shown in rotation in Robeson Pavilion Room A & B. Reserve your places with free tickets, available to Champaign residents starting Sat., Sep. 18, and to the general public starting Mon., Sep. 20. Look for details soon at http://bit.ly/dome\_theatre.

Everyday Architecture

In four programs this fall, U of I architecture and design faculty will examine how architecture relates to the daily lives of CU dwellers. This month, on Thu., Sep. 9, at 7 pm, Jeff Poss will discuss “Monuments and Meditation Huts: Humanizing Architecture for Central Illinois.”

Read Your Way to Prizes—Book by Book

Our seasonal reading program for adults, Book by Book, has a new name and a colorful new look to convey the fun of discovering one great book after another—with a chance to win prizes, too! Formerly called Books Unlimited, the program is for adults from high school on up. Each time you read two books, enter our prize drawing, at the library or online. Fall registration starts Sep. 1.

Knittin' for Newbies

Need a nudge to start knitting? Come to our free, two-hour workshop for beginners on Tue., Sep. 14, at 6:30 pm. Brigitte Pieke of Klose Knit will help you start a skinny scarf. Buy a starter kit at the event, or bring supplies. To register or learn more, visit http://bit.ly/knittin\_newbies or call 403-2070. ## My Fixer-Upper Life: Author Mary Kay Andrews a.k.a. Kathy Hogan Trocheck Come meet New York Times bestselling author Mary Kay Andrews, known for popular novels such as Savannah Blues and Deep Dish. She'll be at the library Thu., Sep. 30, at 7 pm, to share her journey as a writer, junk collector, and serial fixer-upper of old houses. A book signing will follow at 8 pm. After 14 years as a journalist, the author began her book career with the acclaimed, light-hearted Callahan Garrity mystery series, written under her real name, Kathy Hogan Trocheck.

library will benefit! Mention us at check-out during these Borders Benefit Days, and Borders will give us 10% of sales up to $1,500. Additional purchases will earn us an even higher percentage. We'll use the proceeds to boost our book collections. If you shop Borders online during those days, enter promo code CHPS8135G.

Americana Rhythms: Sunday Music Series

The Ruthless Goats

Travel the back roads of American music this fall with our free Americana Rhythms series. Each concert will be on a Sunday afternoon at 2 pm.

- September 12 CU quintet The Ruthless Goats
- October 10 Native American music and dance, with Mark Cleveland and Mike Pamonicutt
- November 7 Folk singer-songwriter Ben Bedford
- December 5 Bucky Halker plays Woody Guthrie
