

FriendShop Used Book Store

The FriendShop, managed by the Library Friends, sells gently used books, movies, and music, most for $1 or less, plus library-themed gift items. The shop, on the library's lower level, is open Sundays from 1:30 to 5:30 pm and the first Tuesday each month from 5:30 to 7:30 pm. Friends enjoy significant savings at twice-yearly sales.

THE FRIENDSHOP HAS:

- Hardback Books
- Trade Paperbacks
- Mass Market Paperbacks
- All Children's Books
- Audiobooks
- DVDs
- Compact Discs
- Audio Cassettes, VHS
- "Bargain Bags" of fiction, mystery, or romance
- Recent bestsellers (Rentals)
- "Special Books," prices marked

Donations

The library accepts donations of books, movies, and music that are clean and in good condition. Some items are added to the library shelves; others go to the FriendShop. For more about how and what to donate, visit the library website at champaign.org/support_us/friendshop.

Who are your friends?

They're people who care about you—and encourage you. The best friends make us better than we'd be without them.

It's the same way with Friends of the Library.

The Friends of the Champaign Public Library are people like you who care about their library. They know that having a great library makes our city a nicer place to live. The Friends make the library even better by helping provide books and programs beyond what the regular library budget can buy.

It's always great to make new Friends. Join today!

The FriendShop has thousands of books, movies, and CDs.

New Friends Can...

- Enjoy significant discounts during special sales at the FriendShop
- Sort books for the shop
- Help sell books during open hours
- Help with membership activities
- Enjoy the company of Friends at events just for members

The Friends sponsored class visits for all Champaign first graders, including a science lesson.

Friends Support the Library

Funds raised by the Friends help promote reading and strengthen library programs such as reading clubs, for children on up. The Friends gave $50,000 to help build our new library, through income from book sales and Friends membership fees.

Friends Leadership

The Friends Board of Directors, elected by the membership, meets on the third Wednesday of each month.
